Dear Trackers,

We know you are being inundated with emails notifying you of updates to privacy policies because of changes to EU data protection laws and General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR). We have been too!

We would really like to continue letting you know about our very special adventures and expeditions, but we need to get your permission again by the 25th May 2018, to do this.

Yes, keep me in the loop!

We also want to let you know that we value your privacy and want to make you aware of the choices and control you have over the information you share with us.

- We only store data that you have given us, either through email contact, telephone, by signing-up to our newsletter, when we have met you personally, or when you book an adventure with us.
- This data is stored securely in order to contact you and make your booking, or to share news about our travels, special events and expeditions with you. We treat this data with the utmost care and confidentiality.
- If you do not wish to receive future emails from us, please unsubscribe by
