SPECIAL WEEKEND OPENING

KEITH GRANT

ANTARCTICA

chrisbeetles.com

You are invited to attend the weekend opening of an exhibition of one of Britain's greatest landscape artists, Keith Grant, who travelled to Antarctica in November 2017 with Ice Expeditions.

Long identified with landscape painting in the north, Keith Grant has now embarked on a second expedition to Antarctica in the far south. Returning with inspiration, he has produced some of his most exciting

Some of the most elemental paintings to date explore the many aspects of a glacial environment from the seeming stillness of moraine icebergs to the turmoil of tempestuous seas.

This unmissable exhibition from the 20th October to the 10th November 2018, featuring over 65 new paintings, inspired by King expedition to Antarctica. It is accompanied by a fully-illustrated exhibition catalogue. If you would like a catalogue of the exhibition please call the Chris Beetle Gallery, mentioning 'Ice Tracks Expeditions
